

Table of Contents

		Introduction	1
1		The Beauty of Lease-Options
		The Benefits of Lease-Options	7
		Misconceptions of Lease-Options	13
		Multiple Profit Centers	16
		Refinance Loan vs. New Purchase Loan	20
		Summary	21
2		The Fundamentals of Lease-Options
		Basic Components of a Lease-Option Transaction	25
		The Numbers	31
		Using Conventional Financing	32
		Using Private Financing	36
		Using Seller-Financing	40
		Beyond the Technical Components	41
		The 6 “S”s of TurnKey Investing	46
		Summary	47

3

How to Research the Market

Assessing the Market	51
Market Rents	52
Market Value of “Working-Class” Houses	55
Market Velocity	56
Appreciation	57
Legal Environment	60
Summary	62

4

Purchasing Investment Properties

My Initial Strategy	65
Purchase Criteria	67
Purchase Methods	70
Property Insurance	73
Reviewing the Numbers Again	74
Summary	77

5

Preparing the Property

The Goals of Preparation	81
Preparation Guidelines	82
Standard Improvements	85
Dealing with Unexpected Problems	89
Show-Stoppers	90
Taking a Holistic View	91
No Major Renovation Projects Wanted	91
Summary	92

6

Marketing Properties

Multi-Front Marketing 95
Overall Effect of Marketing 98
Owner-Finance vs. Rent-to-Own 99
Website 100
Signs 101
Flyers 102
Information Hotline 102
Newspaper Advertising 103
Special Situations 103
Undersell and Overdeliver 104
Summary 105

7

Finding the Right Tenants

Generating Activity 109
Have Tenants Visit the Property 110
The Application Process 110
Qualifying the Tenant 111
Things to Look At 112
No Quick Move-Ins Allowed 113
Match the Applicant to the Property 114
Let Applicants Sort Themselves Out 114
Summary 115

8

Closing the Lease-Option Transaction

Definition of a Closing	119
Schedule the Closing	120
Where We Close	121
Contract Review	122
Evaluating Applicants During Closing	122
The Rhythm of Closing	123
Contracts & Forms	124
Signing the Contracts	124
Contracts to Close	125
Disconnect Utility Service	125
Summary	126

9

Dealing with Defaults & Non-Payments

Course of Action is Not Always Clear	129
The Big Picture	130
Working with the Tenant	131
Taking Financial Responsibility	131
How We Work with Tenants	132
Maintaining Cash Reserves	133
Keep the End Goals in Mind	134
Watch Tenants Carefully	134
Types of Landlords	135
Sign & Leave	137
Abandonment	139
Evictions	141
After the Eviction	143
Summary	145

10

Administration

Tenant Management	150
Tenant Rules and Guidelines	151
Support Team	153
Contract Helpers	156
Investment Partners	157
Administration	159
Filing System	161
Summary	162

11

The TurnKey Investing Philosophy

The TurnKey Investing Philosophy	166
Summary	176

In Conclusion	179
---------------------	-----

Appendix

Appendix A: Sample Documents	181
Appendix B: Area Maps	185
Appendix C: Area Demographics	187

Acknowledgements	193
About the Author	197
About the Contributor	198
The Management Team	199
Recommended Resources	201